

Equality Duty

At West Bromwich Collegiate Academy we welcome our duties under the Equality Act 2010.

The Academy's general duties, with regards to equality are:

- Eliminating discrimination
- Fostering good relationships
- Advancing equality of opportunity

People who are protected under the Equality Act 2010 have protected characteristics.

These are:

- age
- disability
- gender reassignment
- marriage and civil partnership
- pregnancy and maternity
- race
- religion or belief
- sex
- sexual orientation

We will not discriminate against, harass or victimise any student, prospective student, member of staff or other member of the Academy community because of these characteristics.

West Bromwich Collegiate Academy aims to promote students' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development, with special emphasis on promoting equality, diversity and eradicating prejudicial incidents for students and staff. Our Academy is committed to not only eliminating discrimination, but also increasing understanding and appreciation for diversity.

The Academy recognises that certain groups in society have historically been disadvantaged on account of unlawful discrimination they have faced on the basis of their race, gender, disability, religion/belief, sexual orientation or age.

West Bromwich Collegiate Academy has identified the following specific objectives for the academic year 2023-24.

- To analyse the academic progress of specific student cohorts (gender, ethnicity etc) on a termly basis and put intervention plans in place as necessary
- To audit the involvement of ethnic minority students in "whole school life" (clubs, residential etc) and if necessary, develop strategies to address issues that are identified
- To audit the involvement of disadvantaged and SEN students in "whole school life" (clubs, residential etc) and if necessary, develop strategies to address issues that are identified
- Review provision for students with physical disabilities and mobility issues and ensure that curriculum and wider school experience is fully accessible
- To reduce the incidence of prejudice-related bullying in relation to the protected characteristics listed in the Equality Act 2010
- To promote cultural development and understanding through a rich range of experiences both in and beyond the Academy
